

I am James Strawbridge and am currently Vice-Chair of the Governing Body. I am a long serving member of the Governing Body, originally appointed before the city gain unitary status.

My skills and interests include a sound grasp of employment law, the ability to analyse data and a continuing interest in education policy, with regular attendance at governor conferences. My outside interests include cycling.