Parents evening postponement**

Dear parents & carers,

Due to the continued snowfall and increased health and safety implications and risks we are postponing ALL parents evenings appointments that were booked for after school today. We apologise for any inconvenience caused by this but must always consider everyone's health and safety as a priority. We will update you about when we can re-book your appointments for next week if you had one booked in for later today.

School will remain open until the usual end of day times today.

We anticipate that school will also be fully open tomorrow but will continue to monitor the situation and update you all if this should change.

Best wishes,

Mr Perkins,
Head Teacher
